Dear Mr. Clark:

I am addressing you in order to inform you that your motion on the Lori Berenson Case was known by the Inter-American Court of Human Rights on this session. Even though the Court understands the reasons of your motion it will not be able to accept it because the scheduling of this Tribunal is done by the order in which the cases are received. As it is of your knowledge all the cases in this Court are extremely important.

Please accept, the renewed assurances of my distinguished consideration.
