Table of contents

National Human Rights Institutions
Articles and working papers

Section 1

General articles

1. National Human Rights Institutions: Standard-setting and Achievements
   Birgit Lindsnaes and Lone Lindholt
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

2. The Effectiveness of National Human Rights Institutions
   Mohammad-Mahmoud Mohamedou
   The International Council for Human Rights Policy

3. Guarantees of independence of National Human Rights Institutions:
   Appointment and Dismissal Procedures of Leading Members
   Kristine Yigen
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

4. Jurisdiction and Subject Matter of Complaints:
   A General and Comparatoive Perspective
   Lone Lindholt, Kristine Yigen, Birgit Lindsnaes
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

5. General Aspe&s of Quasi-judicial Competences of National Human Rights Institutions
   Fergus Kerrigan and Lone Lindholt
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

Section 2

European perspective

6. The Experiences of European National Human Rights Institutions
   Morten Kjaerum
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

7. Implementation of the Western Ombudsman Model in Countries in Democratic Transition
   Peter Vedel Kessing
   The Danish Centre for Human Rights

Asi& perspective
8. The Asia Pacific Forum: A Partnership for Regional Human Rights Cooperation
   Kieren Fitzpatrick
   The Asia Pacific Forum 109

9. India's National Human Rights Commission: Strengths and Weaknesses
   Vijayashri Sripati
   The National Academy of Legal Studies and Research, India 117
   African perspective

10. Uganda: Human Rights Protection by the State in Uganda
    Marcus Topp
    University of Copenhagen 133

    Kofi Quashigah
    University of Ghana 155
    Latín American perspective

12. The Ombudsman Institution in Latín América:
    Minimum Standards for its Existence
    Gonzalo Elizondo and Mrs. Irene Aguilar
    The Interamerican Instituto of Human Rights 163

Appendices

Appendix I  Table I: Types of complaints handled by selected national human rights commissions

Appendix II  Table II: Outcome of complaints handled by selected national human rights commissions

Appendix III National human rights commissions established / planned to be established according to the Paris Principles, March 2000

Appendix IV  Degree of independence

Appendix V  Mandate - aim of the national human rights institutions

Appendix VI  Indicators

Appendix VII  Abbreviations and bibliography for studies (Section I, chapters 3, 4 and 5)

Appendix VIII Checklists for studies (Section I, chapters 3, 4 and 5)