Table of Contents

Preface
Prof. William Schabas (National University of Ireland, Galway)

Introduction
Ludovic Hennebel and Thomas Hochmann

Part I - From Genocide to Denial

Chapter 1: Law's Holocaust Denial: State, Memory, Legality
Prof. David Fraser (University of Nottingham)
Chapter 2: From Trying the Perpetrator to Trying the Denier and Back Again
Prof. Lawrence Douglas (Amherst College)

Part II - Balancing Denial Prohibition

Chapter 3: Holocaust Denial and Hate Speech
Prof. Robert A. Kahn (University of St Thomas)

Chapter 4: Defending Truth: Holocaust Denial in the Twenty-First Century
Prof. Kenneth Lasson (University of Baltimore)

Chapter 5: The Criminal Protection of Memory: Some Observations about the Offense of Holocaust Denial
Prof. Emanuela Fronza (University of Trento, Italy)

Part III - Ruling Denial Prohibition

Chapter 6: The Law of Holocaust Denial in Europe: Towards a (qualified) EU-wide Criminal Prohibition
Dr. Laurent Pech (National University of Ireland)

Part IV - Implementing Denial Prohibition

Chapter 7: Denial of the Holocaust, Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity: A Comparative Overview of Ad Hoc Statutes
Martin Imbleau (Montréal)

Chapter 8: The Denier's Intent
Thomas Hochmann (University of Paris Panthéon-Sorbonne)