TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter I

THE NATURE AND SOURCES OF THE RULES OF EVIDENCE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>§ § 1. The Function of Evidence in Municipal and in International Tribunals</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2. The Character of International Judicial Proceedings</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>4. Evaluation of Evidence</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5. Difficulties in Obtaining, Preparing, and Evaluating Evidence</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6. Amenability of International Tribunals to the Local Law of Evidence</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Sources of the Rules of Evidence

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>§§ 7. The Creation of the Tribunal</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8. Rules in the Arbitral Agreement</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9. Rules of Procedure of the Tribunal</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>10. Rules From Customary Law</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Chapter II

ORDER AND TIME OF THE SUBMISSION OF EVIDENCE

Order of Submission

| § 11. Order of Submission                                              | 32   |

Time of Submission

| §§ 12. During the Written Proceedings: With the Written Pleadings    | 35   |
| 13. The Same: Rebuttal Evidence                                       | 39   |
| 14. The Same: Later Submission of Evidence                            | 40   |
| 15. The Same: Later Submission of Evidence. The Palmas Island Case    | 44   |
Chapter III
THE PRODUCTION OF EVIDENCE

The Rights of the Parties
§§ 21. Communication of Evidence .............................................................. 70
22. Inspection and Discovery of Documents .................................................. 72
23. Portions or Extracts of Documents .......................................................... 75
24. Awards Based Upon Evidence Produced .................................................. 79
25. Use of Evidence Produced in Other Cases ................................................. 82

Obligations of the Parties
§§ 26. General Nature of the Obligation to Produce Evidence ......................... 83
27. Notice of Evidence ....................................................................................... 86
28. Responsibility of States for Evidence Produced ......................................... 89
29. Burden of Proof ........................................................................................... 91
30. Presumptions and the Burden of Proof ...................................................... 98
31. Adverse Inference From Non-production of Evidence ................................ 100

The Authority of the Tribunal
§§ 32. To Require the Production of Evidence ................................................. 104
33. To Remove Evidence From the Record ..................................................... 109
34. To Make Evidence Accessible to Third Parties and to the Public ............. 112
35. Judgment on a Prima Facie Case ............................................................... 114
36. Judgment by Default .................................................................................. 117

Chapter IV
THE ADMISSION OF EVIDENCE

In General
38. General Principles Controlling the Admission of Evidence ....................... 121
39. Certain General Instances Concerning Refusal to Admit Evidence ........... 125

Table of Contents

Chapter V
DOCUMENTARY EVIDENCE

Importance of Documentary Evidence
§ 42. Extent of Use ............................................................................................ 137

The "Best Evidence" Rule
§§ 43. General Principles .................................................................................. 139
44. Production of Original Documents ............................................................. 141
45. Resort to "Secondary" Evidence .................................................................. 145
46. Proof of Nationality .................................................................................... 148
47. Nationality Through Naturalization ............................................................ 149
48. Nationality Through Birth ......................................................................... 152
49. Maps as Evidence ....................................................................................... 156

Ex Parte Evidence
§§ 50. Ex Parte Evidence not Under Oath ......................................................... 165
51. Affidavits in Anglo-American and Civil Law Procedure .......................... 167
52. The Same: Procedure in the Taking of Affidavits and Depositions ........... 169
53. The Same: Reasons for the Use of Affidavits ............................................ 172
54. The Same: Arguments Concerning Admission and Evaluation of Affidavits ......................................................................................... 174
55. The Same: Practice of Tribunals With Respect to Admission of Affidavits .... 179
56. The Same: Probative Value of Affidavits Determined by Tribunal .......... 182
57. The Same: Conclusions ............................................................................. 184

Authentication and Translations
§§ 58. General Principles of Authentication .................................................... 189
59. Certified Copies of Original Documents ................................................... 192
60. Method of Authentication: In General ...................................................... 194
61. The Same: Public Documents .................................................................... 195
62. The Same: Private Documents ................................................................... 197
63. The Same: Officially Printed Records ......................................................... 198
64. The Same: Literal Reproductions ............................................................... 199
65. The Same: The Permanent Court of International Justice ....................... 199
66. Conclusiveness and Effect of Authentication ............................................ 200
67. Translations ............................................................................................... 202
TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter VI

TESTIMONIAL EVIDENCE

IN GENERAL
§ 68. Use in International Judicial Procedure ........................................ 206

WITNESSES
§§ 69. Power of International Tribunals to Compel Attendance .................. 208
70. Punishment for Perjury ................................................................. 215
71. Payment of Witnesses ................................................................. 217
72. Procedure in Examination ......................................................... 218
73. Taking of Depositions ................................................................. 222
74. Correction and Approval of Record of Testimony by Witnesses ............... 227
75. Credibility and Impeachment ...................................................... 230

EXPERTS AND EXPERT ENQUIRIES
§§ 76. General Practice ................................................................. 233
77. In the Permanent Court of International Justice ................................. 236
78. Visit to the Place (descentes sur les lieux) ...................................... 241

Chapter VII

EVIDENCE SUBJECT TO SPECIAL RULES OF ADMISSION AND EVALUATION

EVIDENCE OF INTERESTED PERSONS
§§ 79. In General ................................................................. 243
80. Rule of the British-Mexican Claims Commission of 1926 .................... 245
81. Cases Attaching Slight Value to Claimant's Evidence ......................... 248
82. Awards Based on Evidence of Interested Parties ................................ 250
83. Interrogation of Claimants .......................................................... 252
84. Conclusions .................................................................................. 255

HEARSAY EVIDENCE
§§ 85. In General ................................................................. 256
86. Reception in International Proceedings ............................................ 257
87. Maps as "Hearsay" ........................................................................ 259
88. Privileged Evidence, Evidence of Confidential Character ....................... 261
Table of Contents

Chapter X

Conclusions

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>§§ 112. Influence of Anglo-American and Civil Law: In General</td>
<td>328</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>113. The Same: The Permanent Court of International Justice</td>
<td>330</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>114. General Conclusions</td>
<td>331</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Appendices

I. Statute of the Permanent Court of International Justice              | 338  |
II. Rules of the Permanent Court of International Justice Adopted March 11, 1936 | 341  |
III. Rules of the Permanent Court of International Justice, Adopted February 21, 1931. (With Differences in 1922 and 1926 Rules Indicated.) | 352  |
IV. Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes of 1907. (With the Corresponding or Different Provisions of the Convention of 1899 Indicated.) | 361  |
V. Convention for the Establishment of a Central American Court of Justice | 366  |
VI. Ordinance of Procedure of the Central American Court of Justice     | 368  |
VII. Convention for the Establishment of an International Central American Tribunal, February 7, 1923 | 373  |
VIII. Rules of Procedure Referred to in Paragraph two of Article XIX of the Convention for the Establishment of an International Central American Tribunal, February 7, 1923 | 375  |

Bibliography

Note.—Abbreviations used in the citations are listed in brackets following the appropriate items in the Bibliography.

Table of Cases

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>------------------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>------------------------------</td>
<td>------</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

xii