THE ACCOUNTABILITY OF ARMED GROUPS UNDER HUMAN RIGHTS LAW
KATHarine FORTIN
The Accountability of Armed Groups under Human Rights Law

KATHARINE FORTIN
Contents—Detailed

Table of Cases
Table of Instruments
Table of Other Materials
List of Abbreviations

I. INTRODUCTION

1. Introduction
   1. Introduction
   2. Definition of Accountability
   3. Scope of the Book
   4. Background to Legal Debate
   5. Damage to the Accountability Framework
   6. Theories Relied upon by Accountability Mechanisms
   7. Design of the Book

2. Added Value of Application of International Human Rights Law to Armed Groups
   1. Introduction
   2. Relationship between IHRL and IHL
   3. Assessment of the Added Value of IHRL in Non-International Armed Conflicts
   4. Relationship between Territory and Added Value
   5. Conclusions

II. LEGAL PERSONALITY OF ARMED GROUPS UNDER HUMAN RIGHTS LAW

3. Evaluative Framework: Legal Personality under International Law
   1. Introduction
   2. Rationale behind Evaluative Framework on Legal Personality
   3. Introduction to Evaluative Framework on Legal Personality
   4. States-Only Conception of International Legal Personality
   5. Recognition Conception of International Legal Personality
   6. Background to Individualistic, Formal, and Actor Conceptions of International Legal Personality
   7. Individualistic Conception of International Legal Personality
   8. Formal Conception of International Legal Personality
   9. Actor Conception of International Legal Personality
  10. Commonalities and Differences between the Conceptions of International Legal Personality

Page numbers: xxv, xxvi, xxxi
4. The Law on Belligerency and Insurgency, and International Legal Personality
   1. Introduction
   2. Law on Belligerency
   3. Legal Personality of Belligerent Armed Groups
   4. Insurgency and the Legal Personality of Armed Groups
   5. General Intercourse between Armed Groups and States as a Source of Legal Obligations
   6. General Functionality on International Sphere as a Source of Legal Personality
   7. Conclusions

5. International Humanitarian Law and International Legal Personality
   1. Introduction
   2. Threshold of IHL: Procedural Perspective
   3. Threshold of IHL: Material Perspective
   4. Threshold of IHL: Theoretical Perspective
   5. Conclusions

6. International Legal Personality of Armed Groups under Human Rights Law
   1. Introduction
   2. International Legal Personality Extends Along a Spectrum
   3. Legal Personality Can Be General or Specific
   4. Legal Personality of Different Armed Groups
   5. Legal Frameworks Can Accommodate High Degree of Heterogeneity Within Category Armed Groups
   6. International Legal Personality of Armed Groups May Have Different Sources
   7. Link between Legal Personality of Armed Groups and Control of Territory is Not New
   8. Legal Threshold for Application of Human Rights Law to Armed Groups
   9. Role of Armed Groups in Creation of Customary International Law
   10. Conclusions

III. HOW AND WHEN ARE ARMED GROUPS BOUND BY HUMAN RIGHTS LAW?

7. How are Armed Groups Bound by International Humanitarian Law?
   1. Introduction
   2. Existing Theories on How Armed Groups are Bound by IHL
   3. Armed Groups Bound as Third Parties to the Geneva Conventions

8. Armed Groups and Treaty Law
   1. Introduction
   2. The ICCPR and ICESCR
   3. The Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CAT)
   4. The Optional Protocol to the Convention on the Rights of the Child on the Involvement of Children in Armed Conflict
   5. The African Union Convention for the Protection and Assistance of Internally Displaced Persons in Africa (the Kampala Convention)
   6. Conclusions

9. Control of Territory and Human Rights Obligations of Armed Groups
   1. Introduction
   2. Principle of Effectiveness
   3. Law on State Responsibility Regarding Armed Groups
   4. Case Law from the General Claims Commission of 1923 between the United States and Mexico
   5. Case Law from the American Civil War
   6. ICL Namibia Principle and European Court of Human Rights Jurisprudence
   7. Cases from the Franco-Italian Conciliation Commission
   8. Comparison of Emerging Conclusions with Political Science Analysis of Armed Conflict
   9. Conclusions on Circumstances in which Acts of an Armed Group Can Be Considered an Act of State
   10. Conclusions for International Humanitarian Law
   11. Conclusions for International Human Rights Law
   12. Implications for How Armed Groups are Bound by Human Rights Law
   13. A Bottom-Up Approach: Rights Devolving with Territory and Population
   15. Conclusions
10. Armed Groups and Crimes against Humanity
   1. Introduction
   2. Armed Groups and Crimes against Humanity
   3. What Kinds of Armed Groups Can Commit Crimes against Humanity?
   4. Normative Significance of a Finding that Armed Groups Can Commit Crimes against Humanity
   5. Conclusions

11. Armed Groups and Customary International Human Rights Law
   1. Introduction
   2. Can Armed Groups Contribute to the Formation of Custom?
   3. Evaluation of Practice Holding Armed Groups Bound by Customary International Human Rights Law
   4. Conclusions

IV. CONCLUSIONS

12. Conclusions
   1. Accountability in Peril
   2. Overriding Purpose of the Book
   3. Conclusions on 'Added Value' of International Human Rights Law
   4. Conclusions on Legal Personality of Armed Groups under Human Rights Law
   5. Operational Perspective
   6. Value of Parallel Accountability Processes
   7. Concluding Remarks

Select Bibliography
Index

Table of Cases

INTERNATIONAL COURTS

Permanent Court of International Justice
Advisory Opinion on the Jurisdiction of the Court of Danzig [1928] 5 PCIJ Reports 15 (5 March 1928) .......................................................... 188, 189, 197, 198
Appeal from a Judgment of the Hungarian/Czardaslovak Mixed Arbitral Tribunal
(The Peter Pannay University Sec A/B, No. 61 (15 December 1938) .......................................................... 81

International Court of Justice
Advisory Opinion on Legal Consequences of the Construction of a Wall in the Occupied Palestinian Territory [2004] ICJ Reports 136 (9 July 2004) (Wall Advisory Opinion) .......................................................... 32
[1971] ICJ Reports 16 (21 June 1971) ........................................................................................................ 260, 261
Advisory Opinion on the Legality of the Use by a State of Nuclear Weapons in Armed Conflict
Advisory Opinion on Western Sahara [1975] ICJ Reports 12 (16 October 1975) .......................................................... 126-7, 133, 134, 158, 543, 570
Barcelona Traction, Light and Power Company, Limited (Belgium v Spain) [1978] ICJ Reports 5 (February 1978) (Barcelona Traction) ........................................................................................................ 143
Carlo Channel (United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland v Albania) (Judgment) [1945] ICJ Reports 6 (5 December 1945) ........................................................................................................ 154
Fisheries Jurisdiction (Spain v Canada) (Judgment of the Court) [1998] ICJ Reports 432 (4 December 1998) ........................................................................................................ 242
LoGrund (Germany v United States of America) (Order, Request for Indication of Provisional Measure) [1999] ICJ Reports 9 (13 March 1999) ........................................................................................................ 273
North Sea Continental Shelf (Federal Republic of Germany v Netherlands) [1982] ICJ Reports 5 (20 February 1982) ........................................................................................................ 204, 328, 329, 330
Nuclear Tests (Australia v France) [1974] ICJ Reports 253 (20 December 1974) ........................................................................................................ 184