Volume 53, Issue 3

Articles

Deadly Ambiguity: IHL’s Prohibition on Targeting Civilian Objects and the Risks of Decentered Interpretation
Emily Chertoff & Zachary Manfredi

Applying the Presumption Against Extraterritoriality to Bankruptcy Avoidance Provisions – A Modified Universalism Solution to the Current Circuit Split
Yanan Zhou

Notes

Protecting International Petroleum Investments during Geopolitical Unrest: Arbitrating Disputes Under Economic Sanctions
Taylor LeMay

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS SCHOOL OF LAW
ARTICLES

DEADLY AMBIGUITY: IH:\' S PROHIBITION ON TARGETING CIVILIAN OBJECTS AND THE RISKS OF DECENTERED INTERPRETATION............................ 259
Emily Chersoff & Zachary Manfredi

APPLYING THE PRESCRIPTION AGAINST EXTRATERRITORIALITY TO BANKRUPTCY AVOIDANCE PROVISIONS – A MODIFIED UNIVERSALISM SOLUTION TO THE CURRENT CIRCUIT SPLIT...... 285
Yanan Zhao

Notes

PROTECTING INTERNATIONAL PETROLEUM INVESTMENTS DURING GEOPOlITICAL UNREST: ARBITRATING DISPUTES UNDER ECONOMIC SANCTIONS......................................................... 307
Taylor LeMay